WORK EXPERIENCE

Financial Analyst & Operations Coordinator June 2025 – Present
Nutinico Inc. Seattle, WA

- Coordinate day-to-day administrative and business operations across 10+ affiliated entities, managing recurring schedules, documentation, records, and follow-up items across departments and external partners.
- Serve as primary point of contact for 30+ vendor accounts, communicating with vendors, managers, and business partners to track requests, investigate discrepancies, and drive issues to resolution.
- Maintain accurate and organized company records across multiple systems including QuickBooks, a property management platform, and internal databases, ensuring information stays complete, current, and audit ready.
- Handle confidential and sensitive matters with discretion, including payroll, Chapter 11 filings across multiple property assets, and executive reporting delivered directly to the founder.
- Administer recurring compliance and filing calendars covering Washington State excise filings, multi-entity property tax, and annual 1099 preparation, coordinating deadlines with external CPAs.
- Author standard operating procedures documenting recurring workflows to support consistency, onboarding, and knowledge transfer.
- Manage competing month-end deadlines against ad hoc requests without missing a close; automated 17 recurring reports, cutting manual processing time by 30%.

Financial Analyst Extern (part-time) May 2026 – Present
Attronica Computers, Inc. (via Extern Inc.) Remote

- Organized and reviewed 5 years of customer records across 500+ data points, identifying 30 accounts with 100% retention to inform renewal outreach.
- Identified and corrected a discrepancy between published benchmark figures and source workbook values, ensuring accuracy of reported information.

Finance Analyst Intern July 2024 – August 2024
Luk Fook Financial Services Limited Sheung Wan, Hong Kong

- Supported senior management in a Hong Kong office environment, preparing reporting materials and coordinating documentation across English and Chinese language sources.
- Built and maintained Excel reporting to track recurring internal reporting cycles.
